We fully recognise our responsibilities outlined in the Children Act 2004 for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children but in particular those children defined as troubled and vulnerable.

We consider the following groups of children to fall in to the category of troubled and vulnerable children:

- looked after children
- traveller children
- bullied/cyber bullied children

- children suffering from neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse or emotional abuse
- children suffering from bereavement

- children experiencing drugs or alcohol abuse
- children with a disability

Our Lady and St Joseph

- children excluded from school

We believe we have worked hard to create and maintain an ethos in which we provide support and guidance so that pupils feel secure and confident enough to talk if they are experiencing difficulties. Pupils understand that we are prepared to listen to them as we value their viewpoints.

We have in place an effective safeguarding and child protection policy, an established system for reporting safeguarding and child protection concerns, a secure system for storing sensitive information, an effective system for monitoring children identified as being vulnerable, excellent lines of communication with external support agencies, policies and procedures for safe recruitment and policies and procedures on how to deal with allegations against school personnel.

We ensure that all school personnel receive regular training in safeguarding techniques so that we are able to recognise the signs and symptoms of suspected child abuse and that they are aware of the procedures of reporting such cases.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.

This policy has been equality impact assessed and we believe that it is in line with the Equality Act 2010 as it is fair, it does not prioritise or disadvantage any pupil and it helps to promote equality at this school.
