

Create a picture to celebrate our community - Lesson 2

Using any online programmes or using magazine pictures, I would like to create a picture to celebrate your community. Including both labels and pictures, how can you represent your whole entire community? Think about all the different groups you belong to from last week and make a picture to show what is important to you. You can use your mind map to guide you.

