

Dear parents: .... Mr Flood ? Yes imaginary child. Who did you think would win the Euros? Well child in my Newsletter on June 11th I wrote "outside bet Italy, on a winning run just now, boring but hard to beat". Oh dear! Mr Flood do all your predictions come true? Well I also wrote England would be knocked out on penalties in the quarter finals so no ..... You can dream on imaginary child !!!
For the final on Sunday I think ... read on. So much news this week. Big late news we will now have an end of year welcome back Summer Party on the evening on July 20th. Look out for details in the days ahead. Weather looks set fair so .... Reception Sports Day was a lovely morning and our main one took place in Rosemary Gardens this morning. Remember diary entry for July 20th and school Summer Party we need to start living our lives again and being happy and smiling and having some fun...

Pics of the week: Scenes from Reception Sports Day a good old egg and spoon and sack race well done Mr James and also too Ivy (Head Girl) who took these action shots .... Year 1 and Year 2 and World of Work Week. + my new hero of the week Damien Parrott who has blocked Islington's cycle way 38 outside Drayton Park Primary school at home times as being too dangerous .... I was told I could not block the Queen's Highway when I tried .. brave man ! More pics on Monday .....

Meet The New Teacher Day

I used to call this Transition Day but times and language have changed so to avoid any .... for September 2021 classes are ....

Year 1 --- Ms Emma Sharpe

Year 2 --- Ms Claire Walshe Monday to Thursday & Ms Sarah Woodhouse Friday

Year 3 --- Ms Jade Cahill

Year 4 - Mr Josh Rook

Year 5 - Ms Judyta Ruminska

Year 6 - Ms Rosanna Harries

and finally .... Fratelli d'Italia ...always gives me a shiver as the opening words of the stirring and vibrant Italian national anthem ring out. Beautiful country, and landscape, my favourite food, my last meal before the firing squad would be spaghetti vongole, great artists Giotto, Caravaggio, musicians Verdi Puccini, poets Dante and writers Primo Levi, I can read Italian, adored Sophia Loren, I've owned two Fiat cars and the 1982 World Cup final with Rossi, Altobelli and Marco Tardelli have given me some of the best moments of my life. I support Lazio because of Paolo di Canio and have been all over Italy many times ..... but just for once, just once I am daring to dream. I did predict Italy to win but what do I know. 1967 baking hot day a schoolboy ran home to see the European Cup Final kick off in Lisbon. His second favourite team Celtic had no hope against the mighty Inter Milan and yet the Celtic Lions of Lisbon won 2-1. That schoolboy was me. It will be close and two dodgy goalkeepers Italy have won 4 World Cups and 1 Euro and we have a very large number of lovely Italian families in our school but .... I dare to dream why not 1-0 Declan Rice 35 yard screamer in the 87th minute right between Chiellini and Bonucci the Juve warhorse maestros ..... have we seen the last of Federer, boring Wimbledon this year and has anyone watched Mark Cavendish in the Tour de France ?? .... will switch from Italian Peroni to either German Paulaner or Thai Singha beer for Sundays match ...got my lucky England shirt all ready and red, white and blue tennis socks pressed .. so what can possibly go wrong on July 11th ?? .... Hands touching hands Reaching out, touching me, touching you . Sweet Caroli....sing up .... Good times never seemed so ... Sweet dreams are made of this. ....keep singing all the children were at Sports Day ..... Football's Coming ..
