

1. Rewrite the sentences below and underline the adverbial phrase.
 - a. He arrived at school much earlier than expected.
 - b. She completed the work as quickly as possible.
 - c. My friend ate her dinner really eagerly.
 - d. John can play the guitar much better than Daniel can.

Now put four of the adverbial phrases into four interesting sentences.

2. Here is a mix of words. Tick the five adverbial phrases in the list below.

so suddenly
bright red lipstick
quite carefully
very softly
extremely loudly
unbelievably quickly
large television
the dog's bone

Now put the adverbial phrases into five interesting sentences.

1. Rewrite the sentences below and underline the adverbial phrase.
 - a. He arrived at school much earlier than expected.
 - b. She completed the work as quickly as possible.
 - c. My friend ate her dinner really eagerly.
 - d. John can play the guitar much better than Daniel can.

Now put three of the adverbial phrases into four interesting sentences.

2. Here is a mix of words. Tick the five adverbial phrases in the list below.

so suddenly
bright red lipstick
quite carefully
very softly
extremely loudly
unbelievably quickly
large television
the dog's bone

Now put the adverbial phrases into five interesting sentences.