

Dear Mr Wha,

I am so sorry for being mean to you because I got very fustrated about you. I was so selfish even though you were trying to save my life. You were just trying to save me from the stories and I deserve getting shouted at. Next time I should have let you sit on the horse. In the future I want to be kinder and more genours. In fact I think

I should do all of the housework! I am so Sorry for not doing what you said to me. I wish I could be the first one who could invent a metal piece that could go back in time.

Kind regards,
Violet
