

Dear parents: On the day that Theresa May triggers Article 50 via a letter to Donald Tusk I am writing the last Newsletter of the term. We are ready for Easter and loads of exciting things to look forward to when we return. Our giant 75" Touchscreens have just arrived and are being installed next week. One of the most exciting innovations in learning for your children since we got the first ever blue iMacs shipped to a UK school all those years ago. We also had the second ever interactive whiteboard installed so exciting learning ahead. They have finally started on our Daily Mile track in the Junior playground and that will be completed next week as well. I also received on Monday my Quality Assurance Grade from HMI for my Ofsted inspection work, submitted my report and have now qualified as a Lead Inspector for Ofsted. I did work really hard have a safe journey if you are on your travels and to everyone have a happy holy and joyous Easter.

and finally my thoughts on Brexit are ...maybe not! I don't want to be labelled an "enemy of the people". Hope the country thrives and prospers in the years ahead but ...I do know a lot of concerned EU parents in our school worried about their future. This is the wonderful city of London where we take diversity as given but not everywhere is the same. Mentioned a lovely school motto I saw on an inspection" "All different, all equal all smiling". wonderful ... I leave you with that as I wish you all a Happy Easter. See you April 18th.
