

Dear parents: ... Momentous day today. I started Monday with Martin Luther King Day assembly and followed it up today taking the whole school on my own both days. I've still got it !! On Monday children did not know what a boycott meant (not one child), what Civil Rights meant or what inauguration meant let alone much about Martin Luther King. Tested them today and the response was amazing a real ego boost. Ask them tonight about the great MLK man, the greatest speech and his dreams. Because at 4pm we get Donald Trump and all bets are off..... teachers dropping like flies this week with colds and coughs. All parent consultation appointments will be made up asap and apologies.

School Building and Governors Fund...

Well up again 2 families since last week + £200 upwards.

Total = £ 4,130 .00 130 out of 166 families have contributed so 78% of all families. Come on the other 36 families do support the school in 2017 or let us know you cannot or do not intend to pay anything to help us maintain your child's school building and premises.

Attendance last week

Best class for attendance is Year 3 again @ 100.00% (what are you feeding them?) and for being on time Year 3 and Year 5. Well done to both classes at the start of the year of the Rooster.

pics of the week that was ... the greatest speech ever made ?? "I have a Dream" - Washington Martin Luther King Washington DC August 28th 1963 ..I remember it back then as a child and so did Ms Marshall ... Chinese Calligraphy Day and quite a good goal from Andy Carroll ...who needs Payet I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal." ..I have a dream today. I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation".... YouTube it!

and finally ... freezing cold week in an uncertain world still we now know what Brexit will look like ...clear as a mud pie ... anyone watch the programme on clean eating last night ? Horizon BBC2 9.00pm worth a look for all the charlatans and con artists out there really well put together science based programme ... my very dear beloved friends funeral service was on Tuesday of this week and you have never seen so many grown men in tears in your life, his four children were in a daze, some people will never ever know how much they were loved in this life ... lit a candle in our own church after Thursdays Mass and moving on RIP Robbie.. ...enjoy the lovely January weekend life is so precious.
