

Dear parents: Thank you for your positive responses to our RE survey this week we all greatly appreciate this as we strive for outstanding again this term. Last chance to submit forms on Monday. Check diary dates below especially Secondary transfer dates and meetings. Had a nice meeting this week with our new Parish Priest, Fr Derek. RE terms dates will be going out next week so watch out for those. Our security updates are nearing completion and we have a few more items to add. School feels a whole lot safer every day I must admit. Anyway another week almost over and we are all still standing. Strong old world out there just now. Enjoy your weekend.

Pics of the week !!!....

Our lovely new Reception class in the bright sunshine today. Also one of our ex-pupils Gregory Ezekiel a budding entrepreneur is involved in this event in islington sounds good.

and finally .. I ran into the Cologne fans at Highbury Corner yesterday on the way home. Got round it somehow ... all in high spirits and their singing was best I've heard in years. I love the atmosphere at German football games all mostly good natured. The fans I saw were great and were enjoying the odd Stein or two only 5 arrests out of 25,000 working class North German visiting fans amazing... there were rumours that police were called by local wealthy residents who said they had never heard people singing, dancing and being happy at the Emirates Library before !!!.... I love cooking and YouTube recipes but going mad with American recipes ..cup of this half a cup of ... why not say how much ??... all my cups are different sizes ... Frank de Boer should never have joined Palace ..Chairman is a leading Brexiteer !! ... the Hammers on the up and the leaves turning slightly yellow ...Autumn on the way.
