

Dear parents: .... Busy weekend .... not just Muguruza, Federer and Hamilton (don't mention the cricket). Mr Hood's Gillet for Grenfell was a great success and raised £3,000 for Fire Brigade Charities and for an Art Therapy Centre to help traumatised children. Lovely afternoon, good to see so many there and fun in the sun. Busy week too as we say farewell to our two wonderful priests and others. Lots of prizes, awards and a few tears no doubt as we approach the end of term and the Summer holidays ... get the Cliff Richard song ready ....

pics of the week...

Gold, Silver and Bronze awards today, Lion King, the class of 2017, the amazing London Street orchestra and some helpers from Sunday and Mr Hood receiving a cheque for £335 for London Fire Brigade Charities this morning. Well done everyone and finally .. I turned the TV off when Cilic started crying as I knew Federer had him beaten ..... nearest thing to perfection in a sporting star ... anyone watching Margaret Atwood's The Handmaids Tale ?? ..it's slow and I find I watch 2/3 3episodes at once but compelling ... no need to watch any political dramas as real life is much more fun .... can highly recommend a local coffee shop and bar in Gillett Square called Kaffa Coffee Ethiopian run super friendly and great coffees and cold Ethiopian beers ...lovely host yesterday ... an emotional roller coaster of a week coming up ..... enjoy the sunshine been a good hot Summer so far.
