An introductory paragraph should briefly sum up what the story is about. Think: What? Who? When? Where? How?

The main body should contain facts and not your own opinions. Information given should be chronological.

Have quotes and sources of the quotes to make your story credible. Remember to use inverted commas!

The last paragraph of the text should sum up and bring the story up to date, e.g. 'Police are still investigating thoroughly for more answers.'

Include reporter's name and job title at the end, e.g. 'Alpha Smith, Media Correspondent, Sheffield.'
