

Dear parents: Sadly we had to ask Year 2 to self isolate on Monday after a child tested positive. Papers are all saying this will change come September as it must do. Telegraph today writing about one girl in the North of England being sent home 7 times recently. We put on a Google Meets and work is available online and also in paper form but it is not the same. Not the way I wanted to start the week. Lots happening so read on. Oh and there is the small matter of a game at 5pm today. I always remember that famous quote from the great Muhammad Ali when asked about Joe Frazier's chances: "Frazier's got two chances. Slim and none and slim just left town" that is how I feel about tonight's game against the German Mannschaft. We have won one knock out stage Euro match in the last 59 years and that was against Spain on penalties. Our last meaningful victory against Germany was in 1966 when it was still West Germany only 55 years ago. Reports almost all signed and ready to go out. A big thank you to all parents who have volunteered to talk about their jobs and careers next week also had new Reception parents in all week. Busy days

Pics of the week:

Scenes from Wembley July 30th 1966 my eldest daughter was born July 30th, a good omen. My three childhood heroes and the Swiss rolling on with great joy ... fantastic evening...

and finally in 1966 a young boy sat down on his own to watch on a black and white television set England winning the World Cup. A few short weeks later his father took him and his brother to Upton Park first day of the season when 65,000 crammed in to a stadium built for 35,000. Moore, Hurst and Peters ran on first waving in the blazing sunshine as he stood on the North Bank being crushed. Little did he think that Germany would beat us every time in a major competition since. Only been 55 years. As that boy grew he came to visit Germany many times, came to love the country, its food, its people, music and of course its beer and the Reinheitsgebot. German brewing purity laws. He learned to get by in German studied its history and read some of its greatest writers including Goethe. He loved German football and its fantastic fans and knows its national anthem (well the first verse). But that young boy still dreams of one day seeing England win again. There is even one West Ham player in the team and that boy is now me. Dream on I turned off last night when Pogba scored and France went 3-1 up so miracles do happen. don't they ?? Better get back to signing final reports they're going out tomorrow.
