Questions

- How do you think it helps to learn the Qur'an off by heart?
- What are the different ways of learning the Qur'an?
- What did you notice about the way the Qur'an was being read? (Right to left and starting at what would be for us the end of the book.)
- What do the opening words of the Qur'an tell you about its purpose?

Look at the slide with the different names for the Qur'an.

Task – Using the names from the list describe what you think they might tell you about Allah.

e.g.

1. The gentle – Allah must be encouraging people to be gentle in their lives. The Qur'an is a book to encourage people to be kind and fair to others.

Ext – research how the Qur'an was revealed and fill in the research sheet. Read through the PowerPoint and then answer the questions on the Qur'an.
