Quiz!

What can you remember from our topic 'books' so far?

- * What might you find in the Bible?
- * The Bible is divided into 2 parts – what are the two parts called?
- * How many Gospels are there?
- * Can you remember any of the people the Gospels are named after?
- * Can you remember a story that you have heard from the Bible?

Lectern

After these readings, the Book of the Gospels is held up and carried in procession to the lectern.

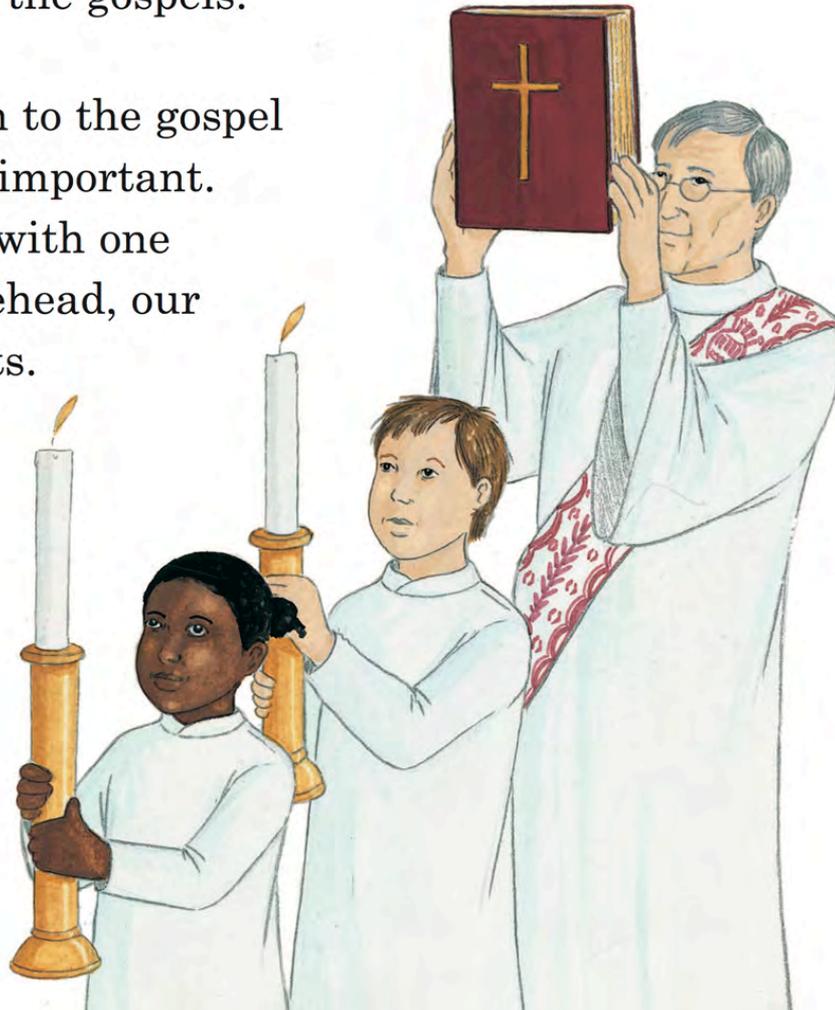

We greet the Gospel with 'Alleluia!'

The deacon or priest then reads the Good News of Jesus from one of the gospels.

We stand to listen to the gospel to show that it is important.

We make a cross with one thumb on our forehead, our lips and our hearts.

This shows we want to understand, speak and love God's word.

The deacon or priest ends the gospel reading with:
'The Gospel of the Lord.'
We respond with: 'Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.'

Today's task

Design a simple information leaflet about the books we use at church and describe how and why these books are used.

The image shows a three-page template for an information leaflet. The left page features a large empty rectangular box at the top and five horizontal lines below it. The middle page has five horizontal lines at the top and a large empty rectangular box at the bottom. The right page has a horizontal line at the top, a large empty rectangular box in the middle, the word "By" centered below it, another horizontal line, and a "twinkl" logo at the bottom. Two black arrows point from the text on the right towards the large empty boxes on the right page.

Draw a picture for the front cover of your leaflet and give it a title.

Draw a picture of the different books used in Church, include the name of the book and any information you can remember.

You might want to include the lectern in your leaflet.
